

Bishop To Confirm 25 New Episcopal Church Members

The Right Reverend Donald J. Campbell, suffragan bishop of the diocese of Los Angeles, will officiate at a confirmation service of 25 new members of the St. Andrew's Episcopal Church on Sunday, May 27 at 11 a.m., according to Rev. Arthur E. Bello, pastor.

The new members of the 1951 Confirmation class have been receiving weekly instruction over a period of months and will become full members of the church, accepting the responsibility of the vows made for them by their sponsors at their baptism.

The following Sunday, June 3, following the tradition of the church, a service of Holy Communion will be celebrated at 7:30 a.m. for the 1951 confirmation class. Members of the 1950 class will serve breakfast for the new members.

In charge of the breakfast preparation will be Mrs. Mary Ulmer, Mrs. William Roberts and Mrs. A. Jackson. They will be assisted by the junior members of the 1950 confirmation class.

North Carolina has about 3620 square miles of water.

FRIENDSHIP GROUP TO PRESENT DRAMA

The Girls World Friendship Group of the First Methodist Church will give a dinner followed by a program featuring an Indian drama in the auditorium of the church, tomorrow night. This group is sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service. The general public is invited to attend the program which will begin at 7:45 p.m. Reservations should be made for the dinner.

TO APPEAR AT RALLY

One of southern California's foremost singers will make his initial appearance at Youth for Christ's Saturday evening 7:30 rally at the First Baptist church, 500 Seventh street, San Pedro, when John Webb, basso profundo, appears to headline the regular Saturday evening youth rally.

Nazarene Pastor Leaves for New Post in Corona

Leaving this week after nearly 14 years in Torrance is Rev. W. A. Penner, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene at 1501 West Carson street.

Rev. Penner, and his family are moving to Corona where he has accepted the pastorate of the Church of the Nazarene. When the minister and his family came to Torrance, in November, 1937, the Nazarene church had been organized only a few months and was holding services in an old bank building downtown. They later moved the services to the home of Rev. and Mrs. Penner in the Hammetton Tract.

In the spring of 1942, the church purchased the present site at Carson and Denker and began a building program which is marked now by the construction of a new classroom unit valued at approximately $15,000. Moving here from Rantoul, Illinois, will be Rev. Freeman Brunson, who will take over as pastor of the church on June 3.

3. Rev. Ezra Sheets will give the sermon next Sunday.

Rev. Penner reported that he is leaving with a clean slate. Only one payment on the property remains to be paid, he said. A payment of less than $100 will become due in the next couple of weeks, then the property will be clear.

During his nearly 14-year stay in Torrance, the pastor has lived at 20507 North Royal boulevard.

Methodists Mark End of Fiscal Year on Sunday

Sunday is the last Sunday before the close of the Methodist Church fiscal year, which ends on May 31. Reports of the year's work will be sent by Rev. Clarence E. Miller, pastor of the local First Methodist Church next week, to the conference officials in Los Angeles. Among many accomplishments of the Methodist Church this year, Rev. Miller will report more than 100 new members received into the fellowship of the church. Other accomplishments will include the organization of two new Methodist Community Sunday Schools, one in North Torrance and the other in Welteria.

Sunday will be "Membership Sunday" and opportunity will be given for infant and adult baptisms and reception of new members. Rev. Miller will preach on "The General Rules of the Methodist Church" which is a historical statement given by John Wesley, founder of the

Rev. England To Speak on The Spirit

Rev. Cecil J. England, pastor of the First Christian church, will preach on the subject, "When the Spirit is Come," at the 10:50 a.m. services Sunday, he announced this week.

"Many times persons say they do certain things of importance when the spirit moves them to do so," Rev. England said. He added that there is a real sense in which this is true with many if not all people.

The minister said he will point out some worthwhile checks and balances upon the moving spirits of our lives in his Sunday sermon. A nursery is provided for small children under five during the regular church service.

Methodist Church, setting forth the ethical, moral and spiritual implications of practical Christianity which are just as vital for our day as they were when first given in 1750.

Walteria Church May Get Own Pastor in Fall

It is planned that a regular minister will be appointed in the fall to serve the pastorate of the Walteria Methodist-sponsored Church, according to a recent announcement by Dr. J. Lyons, district superintendent of the Long Beach-Pasadena District of the Methodist Church.

The new minister would work under the supervision of the Harbor Union Methodist Missionary Society according to Rev. Clarence E. Miller, pastor of the Torrance Methodist Church. "The Walteria Community Methodist Church is being organized with the consent of the Southern California Council of Protestant Churches and will be liberal in its denominational policies in order that it may provide a church fellowship for all denominations," Rev. Miller said.

All who live in the Walteria-Pacific Hills section who are interested in helping to establish this kind of a community church are invited to attend, according to Rev. Miller.

The Methodist Sponsored Community Sunday School and Church are meeting in the Walteria Park-Recreational Building, Sunday School with classes for all ages begins at 9:30 a.m. and church services are held each Sunday at 11 a.m. A social gathering and business meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, May 29th at the Walteria Methodist Church at which time plans for an expanding organization will be made.

The Fellowship Forum Club of the First Christian Church will hold its last meeting for the fiscal year Sunday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hulzing of Manhattan Beach at 7:30, according to Joe Lukes, president.

Guest speaker for the evening is to be Prof. J. de la Hays of the History Department in El Camino College. He will speak and lead the discussion period on the general theme of "Basic Causes of The Protestant Reformation." This meeting will conclude a series which he has given to the group. All new members of the Church have been invited to attend this last meeting of the year.

Beginning next fall, the new officers to take office will be president Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Rood; secretary, Mrs. Freddie Smith and Mrs. Kenneth O'Dell; treasurer Howard Hulzing. The first meeting in the fall will be held right after the opening of school in September.

This film, "O, For a Thousand Tongues" was produced entirely on set in the actual mission stations deep in the Mexican and Peruvian hinterlands. This is a documentary film which vividly portrays the work of producing the Bible for those who have never had their own language written down.

Heathenism in all its frightening reality is seen by aid of telephoto lenses, with actual sound through the medium of tape recordings using hidden microphones in the jungles. This film will be preceded with a word from Rev. Russell Killman on the subject, "Now Is The Hour." The public is invited to attend this premier showing in Torrance.

VAST DOMAIN

Argentina's area is more than one million square miles.

Soul and Body Sermon Topic

God's government of the body will be explained in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Soul and Body" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text is from Isaiah 26:8: "In the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee."

A Bible story from Matthew relates that a centurion besought Jesus to heal his servant, who was sick of the palsy. Jesus said, "I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, 'Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.' Jesus said, 'Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour'." (8:7,13).

Correlative citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" include: "Mind is the master of the corporeal senses, and can conquer sickness, sin and death. Exercise this God-given authority. Take possession of your body, and govern its feeling and action" (p. 393).

Forum Club Set For Last Meet Of Fiscal Year

The Fellowship Forum Club of the First Christian Church will hold its last meeting for the fiscal year Sunday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hulzing of Manhattan Beach at 7:30, according to Joe Lukes, president.

Church to Hold Memorial Rites

Sunday, May 27, will be observed as Memorial Sunday at Central Evangelical United Brethren Church at Marcelina and Arlington avenues, according to Rev. U. S. Schauer, pastor.

At the 11 a.m. service, Rev. Schauer will speak on "Memories that Bless or Burn." Sunday also marks the close of the current church year, the pastor said, and he reminded members and friends of the church of the aims to make it a Church Loyalty Day by attending all services and helping meet the financial goals toward which the congregation is striving.
